The attractive ad of Mrkliree's Wine of Cardui appearing today will attract much attention.

The Chattanesian Medicine company, manufacturees of Wine of Cardui, are among the most successful advertisers in America, and their contract hist closed with the Gazette in another teatmontal to its value as a high class advertising medium.

The discovery of Wine of Cardui has brought about a recolution in the treatment of the common complaints from which nearly all women suffer, familiarly called "fermic diseases." The treatment and frequently only cured by the treated after examination of the surgeon's knife, was wide-spreak. Then, aread of such treatment and exposure kept thousands of modern women silven about their suffering. They preferred the pains and torture to going to a physician about such matters.

It has now been demonstrated that nine classes out of ten of womon's disoroffice of the control of the control of the classes of the control of the contro

Gazette readers may express their preferences.

This coupon can only be used by patrons of the Gazette not living in Fort Worth, and may be voted for any Sunday school outside of this city and its suburbs.

The final count of coupons will be made Friday night, December 20, and the organ shipped to the fortunate Sunday school securing it, on faturday, December 21, in time to be used in the Christmas service.

Christmas servies.

The above is the coupon, which should be clipped and sent in as large packages as possible, marking number and address of sender, to "The Gazette Santa Claus."

In reply to a number of inquiries, we repeat the announcement that no votey will be received from Port Worth in the ergan contest, nor can coupons be clipped from papers circulated in Port Worth. In order to prevent any mistake upon this point, the coupon in the papers distributed in Fort Worth here-after will bear the label "Non-votable." It is intended that all of the communities which desire the organ shall have an equal standing in the contest, and it is appearent that if the preponderating outs of Fort Worth were cast for any school this would not be the case. We print below the entire contest communications and correct standing of the contestantic as they should have minated funday morning.
